

K-Love is a great radio station for my family. It would really make an impact on myself and my family as well as the community to have this station taken off. They have family friendly music that our whole family enjoys.